CAROLINE

An Exciting Tournament

(Correspondence of The Free Lance.) Milford, Va., Nov 23.

There was an exciting contest on the Dewell race track, in Hanover county, last Friday afternoon between the gallant knights of Hanover and Caroline for the honor of crowning the queen of love and beauty and her maids. Quite a large and enthusiastic crowd witnessed the display of chivalry and cheered the knights on to victory. The names and titles of the Hanovel knights were T O. Baker, knight of Paylorsville; F Hill neworth, knight f Garnett's; Arthur Wright, knight of - ; W. Parkinson, knight of Plaindealings; T. E. Campbeil, knight of Doswell; M. D. Conine, knight of Ellington; Wm. Dacey, knight of South Wales. Those of Caroline were E. M. Burrass, knight of Ruther Glen; H G Blackley, knight of Penols; O. R. Dickinson, knight of the Last Cause ; Joseph Houston, kuight of the Wild West; D. G. Quarles, knight of Cores; J. Hanter, knight of Chesterfield; M Campbell, knight of Golansville. The riding resulted in a tie betwee four knights, which when ridden out resulted as follows: Knight of Lest Cause, four rides, eleven rings, crowned Miss Bessie D. Beazley, of Caroline, queen of love and beauty; knight of Ruther Glen, four rides, ten rings, crowned Miss Ireue Blackley, of Caroline, first maid of honor; knight of Taylorsville, four rides, nine rings, crowned Miss Annie Mitchell, of Hanover, second maid of honor; knight of Golansville, four rides, eight rings, crowned Miss Eva Samuel, of Caroline, third maid of

The knights were marshaled by Mr. Wm. Cardwell and the charge delivered by Mr. Horace Buchanan, of Hanover. The tournament reception took place at the residence of Mr. O. C. Fitzhugh, where the coronation address was delivered by Mr. Mr. S. Heperon. and immediately followed by a sumptuous supper over which the queen presided at the head of the table, her first maid at the foot and second and third maids, one on each side. A gold medal was presented to the winner of the queen's crown and silver ones to the other successful knights.

The writer regrets that he is unable as it was omitted in the list of knights furnished him.
